RESERVATIONISTS VICTORS IN DEMOCRATIC COMMITTEE BATTLE OVER TREATY PLANK

Contest So Long and Hot It Delays Balloting For Candidates For Day.

WALSH LEADS OPPOSITION

Senator McKellar Denounces Amendment to National League Scheme of Wilson Forces as "Doctrine of Hell," Mildred Against Administration.

By Associated Press.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 1.—Proposals for balloting late today for a presidential candidate went glimmering as the delegates to the Democratic National convention assembled for the fourth day session. A long, hot fight over the League of Nations declaration in which the supporters of President Wilson were forced to accept an amendment to the administration plank before it could be adopted, so delayed the work of the platform committee that there is little likelihood the delegates will get down to balloting before tomorrow.

A plank dealing with the League of Nations was adopted by the platform committee early today. A long fight delayed the platform committee until the committee recessed until 10 o'clock. Leaders hoped to have the platform ready this afternoon.

In the treaty battle the administration failed to secure adoption of its plank without amendment. The committee, by a vote of 32 to 28, adopted an addition by Senator Walsh of Massachusetts, among those opposing the administration forces, providing for ratification of the treaty only if it was accompanied by reservations with reservations consistent with American obligations.

The publication of William J. Bryan and Senators Pomeroy of Ohio and Walsh of Montana were thrown out.
Resumption of the treaty took up most of the session which began at 8 o'clock last night and ended with recess at 3:30 this morning. The committee adopted the labor and several other minor planks however. Chairman Glass and other members refused to give out any information concerning the treaty debate Vice President Marshall was reported to have criticized the administration plank because it gave no information to the public regarding what reservations would fall within the clause described as "not impairing the covenant." "essential integrity." Marshall was said to have declared he would rather go to the country with a plank for refusal of ratification than to be asked to make unconstructive reservations.

Chairman Glass, Senator McKellar of Tennessee and other administration chieftains strenuously opposed the Walsh amendment. The significance of its adoption was indicated by sharp amendments from the administration side that it would play into the hands of the Republicans and be regarded as a weakening of the Democratic position. Some administration spokesmen declared, it was said, that it would work to defeat the party in November and Senator McKellar was declared to have denounced the Walsh amendment as "the doctrine of hell." Another administration member said it would appear as if the Democrats were "coming to terms" with the Republicans.

The court made no order as to the custody of the three children stating that there was nothing in the evidence requiring the court to interfere with their custody. SAN FRANCISCO, July 1.—When the report of the resolution committee has been handed in the Democratic Convention will be in full swing.
There's much suffering amongst the delegates on account of the cold nights and the heat of the day. The delegates are huddled in the hotels in the evening. There seems to be considerable fear amongst the more conservative Democrats that the convention will be tempted to go too far on the labor question.
"My experience in politics has been that the labor vote isn't worth monkeying with," said a big, prosperous looking war contract Democrat within my hearing last night. "Four years ago when it looked like Wilson's attitude on the Adamson law would defeat him, I rode downtown early on the morning of the election with a load of railroad machinery and only two or three men had been respected. The day after the election the crowd was so big that the store crowd as the labor bunch. This spring I had seven world men building a garage for me. The boss was a Socialist, the carpenters were Republicans, three of the cement workers were unaffiliated, the most Republican I ever talked to was in the garden this spring. The only thing labor is interested in so far as I know is more money and less work, and it knows it.

I can walk out on a job what it wants no matter what party is in power. Mark my word, the average workman isn't busy working on his car when the voting is going on next November."

Samuel G. Blythe, of famous arrangement, is here. He nominated Governor Sprout right up to the last minute at Chicago, but he made no public statement on the situation here since reaching the Pacific slope. Delegates are getting restless; it's all away

ALTOONA GETS BAND

Orders For Recruiting Issued and Work to Start at Once.

Instructions have been given Major A. O. King of the Tenth Regiment, Pennsylvania National Guard, to organize a band for the regiment in Altoona. The band, which was offered to Connellsville, was declined by this city on account of the small rate of pay given musicians. Washington had put in the first application, the band to be made up of the Washington & Jefferson college band, but this plan did not meet with the requirement.

Without the band Connellsville has two units of the Tenth—the Medical Detachment and Company D.

renew their insurance privilege, the home service department of the Fayette County Chapter of the Red Cross, achievement to its credit. At a conference in Pittsburg yesterday the announcement was made that the record of Fayette county in the number and amount of reinstated war risk insurance is proportionate to the amount of insurance that had lapsed, of any district from which reports had been received.

Reinstatement privileges ceased at midnight last night. Those who failed

TELEPHONE RATES OF TRI-STATE TO GO UP AUGUST 1

vice, Official Says.

DOLLAR A MONTH AVERAGE

Increase According to Schedule Filed With Public Service Commission; No Changes Made in Toll Rates; Materials Ordered for Improvement.

Effective August 1 a new schedule of rates for service by the Tri-State Telephone company will be put into effect, according to an announcement today of the filing of the schedule with the Public Service Commission. "The present high cost of labor and material makes it necessary to increase its rates in order that revenues may be sufficient to meet expenses and maintain the service at satisfactory standards," says the notice to subscribers. Verbally an official of the company stated that it is a matter of getting higher rates or "closing up." Materials have been ordered, he said, for improvements.

At the advanced rates the cost of county service will be about the same as is charged by the competing company for local service, while for local service will be much lower, according to a statement by an official.

Under the new schedule county service business rates will be: Private line, $4.30 per month, an increase of $1.20; two-party line, $4.40, increase $1. four-party line, $5.50, increase $1.
Residential county service charges will be: Private line, $3 instead of $2.50; two-party line, $2.50 instead of $2; four-party line, $2 instead of $1.75.

business line, $2.25 instead of $1.75;

NEGRO LIES IN WAIT FOR WIFE'S AFFINITY AND RIDDLES HIM

Victim, Robert Williams, at Cottage State Hospital With Three Wounds; Gunman in Jail.

Charges with felonious shooting, Asa Baker, a negro on North alley, has been arrested and Robert Williams, another negro, the victim, is at the Cottage State hospital with three bullet wounds in his body. The shooting occurred shortly after 7 o'clock last night at Baker's home, Baker was taken to the county jail at Uniontown this afternoon to await the outcome of Williams' injuries.
According to the story told the police the trouble started over Baker's suspicions of Williams' affection for Mrs. Baker. Ostensibly starting to work last Baker had hidden in the closet of the home until he heard Williams enter.
The stories of the actual shooting differ. The wounded man says Baker appeared at the doorway and fired without a word. Baker says he had a scuffle with Williams and during it the gun was discharged, the bullets all striking the injured man.
When Chief of Police Bowers arrived at the house Baker met him at the door and asked that Williams be taken from the house, placed under arrest or taken to the hospital, as the chief desired. Baker was told he would be locked up first.

After locking Baker in jail the officers had some trouble locating the gun used by him. It was finally found under the piano, reloaded.
Williams was hit once above the eye and twice in the back. A statement from the Cottage State hospital this morning gave his condition as "very good."

Mrs. Baker told the police Williams was merely making a social call. She denied she and the wounded man were too intimately acquainted.
The answer of the McAdoo people to that move was that if an inner circle combination forestalls the nomination of the former secretary of the treasury there would be disclosed another coalition which would produce a Wilson-backed dark horse who could make enough concessions to win. The name of Homer S. Cummings cropped out whenever the administration dark horses were being discussed. The name of Vice President Marshall was generally linked with that of Champ Clark when combination candidates to break the McAdoo wave were being discussed among the old-line leaders.

STEER CLEAR OF THIS

Don't Let the Specter of Want Cast Its Shadow Over You.

More than 1,250,000 Americans, who've pooled their days are now dependent upon the cold charity of the state or relatives for support. Don't let such a thing happen to you. Pre-Henry Jewett, Clark Mills, N. Y. This is an excellent remedy for colic and diarrhoea and should be kept on hand by every family.—Adv.

IS IT THE MASTER'S PLAN?

What ex-Secretary, ex-Director General McAdoo will do now that a Kansas City admirer has "drafted" him for the service of the nation, and against his much published protest, is a matter of some conjecture. But the unusual form of planning a candidate in nomination by declaring he would accept if selected, merely serves to strengthen the impression that the studied modesty of the husband of the President's daughter in declining to accept his name to come before the convention as a formal candidate, is a part of a cleverly conceived and carefully wrought out plan in which he politically astute father-in-law has led a hand if, indeed, has not been the directing genius.

The apparently inspired news stories sent out from the scene of the convention lead strong color to this view. Although several candidates, who have been more or less promi-nently before the public, have had their vanity tickled by the empty honor of having their names placed in nomination, developments behind the scenes have been of such a character as to give this form of procedure the appearance of skillfully designed camouflage, which it was intended it should assume. To the knowing and discerning observers of the convention the conviction is growing that in accordance with plans and speculations drawn in the White House, and acting under instructions issued therefrom, the convention, at the psychological moment, will acclaim John Law McAdoo as the only fit, worthy and deserving successor to the present occupant of the Executive Mansion.

The "ovation" on the opening day of a portrait of Wilson was staged with such minute attention to details, and was timed with so much exact-ness and provided with all the necessary stage business and appropriateness of setting, that it is not merely surprising to say that it will be repeated in behalf of the Heir Apparent when the judgment of the administration's staff of stage managers on the ground, the time is propitious to ring up the curtain.

In the execution of these plans every effort will be made to give the proposed stampede to McAdoo the semblance of spontaneity in order that the convention's choice may be heralded broadcast as a conspicuous and rare example of "the office seeking the man."

That such a finale of the "unbowed" convention may result is not too much to expect. It is certainly not less than the Big Boss hopes to see accomplished—next to being named for a third term himself—and, incidentally, quite incidentally, of course, the Crown Prince with continued and carefully concealed modesty, will accept the summons to certain sacrifice in November as "a call from the dear people."

TO SAVE NATURAL GAS.

Individual as well as community interests should prompt natural gas consumers to lend willing and hearty cooperation to the efforts that are to be made to provide for the conservation of this form of fuel. In the survey of gas consuming devices, which is to be undertaken as the request of the United States Bureau of Mines, no objects being sought other than to protect consumers themselves against preventable waste of gas. The survey will be conducted by men qualified by experience to determine whether the devices in use are of the most economical type and have been so installed that the greatest efficiency may be obtained in burning gas. Where defec-tances are found to exist consumers will be urged to make such changes as will result in the reduction of the amount of gas consumed and the saving of that quantity for use by some other consumer.

Notwithstanding the development of new gas territory there is now no assurance that the supply will be adequate for next winter's consumption, it being a well known fact that the gas fields gradually decrease in productivity and that the total consumption increases in like proportion.
This condition makes it imperative that every precaution be taken to conserve the supply. It is viewed as accomplishing this very valuable end, and without depriving domestic consumers of the benefits and convenience of this popular form of fuel, that such agencies as the Bureau of Mines, Public Service commissions and others have taken up the most necessary duty of affecting economy in the use of gas. Locally the County Gas company will be acting under the general plan of campaign that has been laid out with a view to accomplishing this purpose.

WHAT HARDING THINKS.

Special privilege belongs to no man.
The world needs work and still more work.
Influence isn't government, but the perversion of it.
If wages are doubled and the cost of living has more than doubled, labor has lost rather than gained.
Any real development must come from the initiative and inspiration of private enterprise.
America's part in the World War was primarily and patriotically in defense of our national rights.

I would have an understanding with Mexico and then I'd say to her, "By the Eternal you shall live up to this understanding."

We've got to get to thinking in millions again instead of in incomprehensible billions.

We ought to declare an end to autocracy crowned with bureaucracy.

We must stand for American-ism first and all the rest, one hundred per cent Americanism and that and send back to the lands from which they came the men and women who would overturn our institutions.

Let us unshackle both business and citizenship, now that the war is over, and seek the stable ways of peace.

Liberty can never be nullified.

In imparting to the San Francisco convention the information that Attorney General Clegg was a "new factor," the impossible foe of the radicals, John H. Bigelow of Massachusetts has revealed what has heretofore been a profound secret.

The 1920 model steam roller is leaving nothing but grease spots of the anti-administrators in its wake at San Francisco.

Speaking photographically, so to speak, as the personal representative of Administration, Secretary of State Clegg gives further confirmation of the "unbowed" character of the San Francisco convention by declaring that its "outstanding feature thus far is the fervor of the loyalty of the delegates to the President."

Some Sterling, chief of the Palmer delegation from Pennsylvania is quoted as saying, "In the most earnest fashion," that Palmer "is a bitter-end candidate, who will give place to no one." This statement is both history and prophecy. Historically, the "Fighting Quaker" had experience with the bitter end of a certain successful campaign in Pennsylvania a few years ago. Prophecy, he will, if nominated for president, experience another and still more bitter end of an equally vain ambition.

LITTLE IMPORTANCE
ATTACHED TO LABOR
VOTE, SAYS MARTIN

Uncle Henry Besley is one of the most interesting characters attending the convention. He is in Maryland and he's wearing the same plug hat he put on when he thought Tilden was elected.

A GOOD WORLD.

It's a good old world and a true old world.
In spite of the wrong we see,
An' the naughty lips which in anger are curled,
Don't steal any joy from me;
For the selfish hearts an' the cruel hands
May walk in the ways of sin, But the bloom still comes to the clover lands
An' there's peace for us all to win.

The trees still offer their friendly shade
To the strong an' the timid an' faint; An' the sky never asks you what's your trade Or are you a snare or a bait;
The sun smiles down on us all an' all,
An' the roses blossom, too, An' whether we rise or whether we fall
The day says how-do-you-do?

Oh, we hear so much of the good an' bad,
So much in the praise o' skill, That we're apt to think they are only good
Who stand on the topmost hill;
But the sky bends over the humblest boy
In the way that it greets the king, An' the hand o' man cannot steal the joy
Which the days o' summer bring.

The breeze never asks about caste or creed,
An' the orchards know no pride, Though men may flatter o' daring deed An' laws of a cowardly side; The birds an' the trees an' the sun an'
the sky
Know nothing of good or bad, For they smile on all o' us traveling An' hope that we all are glad.

CHAPTER XVI.

Recess.

Very quietly Clinton came to the far corner of the garden, where, in the midst of the fragrant, glorious roses, he stood the summer-house covered with pink-blossomed rose-vines.

Amy was crouched on the bench across from the entrance. The lessening of the light within told her of his presence in the narrow rose-wreathed opening. She averted her face from him.

"Please," he asked, his voice deep and vibrant with joyous certainty: "Please may I come in?"

She quivered, but did not reply. He repeated, a trifle less certain: "Please may I come in?"

From the bench came a whisper of unmistakable anguish: "Don't, don't! Oh, go away!"

On the instant his look changed to deeper cognition and concern. "Miss Lowrie, I—you must not believe—not for everything in the world would I have you think for a moment that I mean to mock you."

"Go away! Leave me alone!" she panted.

"Miss Lowrie," he apologized, "I was very thoughtless of me to say what I did. I should have known how you—I am very, very sorry. Yet what you ask is impossible. I should like to be able to do everything you ask, but that one thing is quite impossible. I cannot go away."

"You won't?" Her shoulders quivered. "What must you think of me—that must you think of me?"

"Do you really wish to know?" "Oh, no—no—no! Go away—please go away!"

"I explained that it is utterly impossible. You should understand why." "Then—then look away while I go!" "That is still more impossible."

Again came the whisper of anguished modesty: "When I did all the things I did, though you tried to stop me! Please go, please! What must you think of me?"

"I think of you with the utmost respect, with a reverence as profound as that in which I hold the memory of my mother."

"You are—are mocking me! It can't be!" "It is!" he rejoined in a tone that compelled belief.

"But after—but when I made you blush my hair," she feebly insisted. "Amy!" His voice lingered on the name. "Can you imagine that a man—any man with the slightest comprehension of such absolute purity and modesty as yours—that he could have been so privileged, yet not reverence you?"

She raised her head slightly, but did not reply. He stepped into the middle of the summer-house and straightened up as erect as a soldier.

"Miss Lowrie," he stated, "I wish to explain who I am. So far my every attempt to do so has been frustrated. You know only that my name is Richard Clinton. I am an architect, fairly successful. The bonus on my plans for the new International Security Bonds Company building rounded out my bank account to something over forty thousand dollars. I am a graduate of the Boston Tech. I was born in Florida, of New England parents, and was reared in California. I shall say no more now until you have had time to verify this statement—if you doubt my word."

"For the moment forgetful of herself, the girl glanced about and up at his erect figure. "Oh, but I never could do that!" she exclaimed.

The words were ambiguous, but not the tone in which they were uttered. He sprang nearer to her, instantly all her shame and confusion swept back in full flood. The scarlet flames to the tip of her pretty ears as she hid her averted face in her hands. He bent forward, with his hands outstretched, as if to clasp her; but checked himself, and the place of the ardent declaration that trembled on his lips he substituted an appeal to her sympathy:

"I am all alone in the world, Amy—utterly alone. Until I came to Denver I did not fully comprehend what that meant. Women entered little into my life. I was absorbed in my career—my career. I have my old home in California, but it is empty. I was going back to it for a visit, thinking that the empty shell would mean to me what a home should mean. Now I know better. A home without the soul of a home is a dead home."

"Soul of a home!" wonderingly whispered the girl.

"Who makes the home?" he asked. "Who is its soul? Need I tell you that? Amy, will you be the soul of my home? Will you be my wife, dear?"

"O—o—o!" she tremulously sighed. "Amy—Sweetheart," he appealed: "You cannot be my little sister any longer. Must I then go away alone to that empty place I thought was my home? Alone, dear, without even a little sister to love and love me? You will go with me, won't you, dearest little wife-to-be? There's no need for you to say a word or even to whisper, really—you know I cannot do anything until you—Dear, dear Miss Lowrie, do you not realize that you can hide your little name just as well under my name?"

"Will you—will you promise not to leave?" asked a tiny voice.

"I promise. My eyes are so tight as tears."

She stepped between her fingers. He took her hand.

UNIVERSAL SATISFACTION THROUGH MANY YEARS OFFERS BEST PROOF OF RELIABILITY

Nerv-Worth Has Stood the Test of Time and For Years Has Been Producing the Desired Results Every Place It Has Been Used. When You Spend Your Money for Medicine, You Want to Know That You Are Going to Get Results. Endorsements from People from Around Home and From Distant Parts of the Country Prove That It Does the Work, and Further Proof is Found in the Fact That It is Sold on a Money-Back Guarantee.

In justice to yourself you cannot afford to take chances with new and untried preparations. When you purchase a remedy you want something that will do the work and relieve your suffering. Nerv-Worth has given satisfactory service for many years, and has become the old reliable, simple home remedy. It has been proved by trial to be one of the greatest means to sufferers that has yet been offered. It has proved by its own work and by actual results to give entire satisfaction. It bears the endorsement of physicians and druggists as well as those to whom it has given relief and health. Letters from people in your neighborhood, and from people throughout the country tell the convincing story of how Nerv-Worth has given results when everything else has failed. Read what some of these people say in the following endorsements selected at random from the millions on file at the Nerv-Worth office.

"I cannot fully express my gratitude for the wonderful merits of Nerv-Worth and its prompt action," said Louis Beaver, 430 Homewood Ave., Springfield, Ohio.

"I have taken two bottles of Nerv-Worth and I've seen a wonderful change. I will recommend it to the highest to anyone," said I. C. Sikos, Cochran, Pa.

"I am gaining strength and weight."

After again of waiting he felt something soft and warm creeping up about his collar. A voice, adorably tender and teasing, began to murmur a verse: "Shut your mouth and open your eyes, and I'll—"

He obeyed so promptly that he caught a glimpse of the loveliest, sweetest face and the tenderest, softest brown eyes in all the world before they were eclipsed by his lamp.

Contemplating a certain thick crown of glossy hair, he inquired: "Then am I to understand, Miss Lowrie, that you positively refuse to remain a sister to me?"

The answer was indirect. It came in scarcely audible whisper: "Don't you remember that evening? I said that if you insisted upon going to California, I would—would go, too?"

Above them and all around the roses were blooming.

THE END.

CRUDOLEUM

FOR POLISHING HIGH CLASS FURNITURE

You simply must try CRUDOLEUM for polishing furniture. Its touch leaves that rich soft glow that makers of high-class home fixtures take such pains to attain. Step into the finishing room of the piano factory. If you please, if you watch closely you will usually discern the bottle which contains the same old-time polish, "Petroleum," that brightened the homes of many years ago. It has marked the passing of many other polishes. CRUDOLEUM is the higher, cleaner, purer grade of that time-tested, undaunted petroleum.

Nature, in its marvelous laboratory, has compounded CRUDOLEUM with exactness, filtered and re-filtered it until clean and clear, then stored it in the chambers of the rocks, from which place man's ingenuity sent it gushing cool and sweet, rich and light in color, bubbling and sparkling into the sunlight, a perfected and finished natural product. Although its beautiful color was admired by many who visited the wall, it was the president of the Simpson Drug Co. who saw in it, on account of its exceptional purity, great possibilities as a superior product for drug and chemical uses. The Connellsville Drug Co. and the Broadway Drug Co., who are the agents in Connellsville and Scottsdale, sell a large bottle for $50, and are authorized to return your money to you if you are not pleased with CRUDOLEUM.

If your druggist does not keep it, send 40c to Wm. M. Simpson Drug Co., Wholesale Druggists, Wilkesburg Station, Pittsburg, Pa., and you will receive a half-pint bottle by return mail—Adv.

and am now in my normal condition, since taking Nerv-Worth," said Mrs. P. I. Wagner, 111 Livingston Ave., Dayton, Ohio.

"I have used Nerv-Worth and think it is the best tonic I have ever found," said Mrs. Fred W. Carpenter, Van Tassel, Wyo.

"I have gained seven pounds in weight, and am now strong and vigorous since taking one bottle of Nerv-Worth," said Leonard Perkins, 209 E. Gay St., Columbus, Ohio.

"Nerv-Worth has made me feel like a new person," Harry P. Mann, 218 S. 11th St., Independence, Kan.

Nerv-Worth is one remedy that gives results quickly. It is a medicine of real merit," said Mrs. V. H. Parker, Kalamazoo, Mich.

"I am happy to say that Nerv-Worth drove rheumatism out of my system and stopped my stomach trouble," said Geo. W. Williams, 508 N. Fourth St., Richmond, Ind.

"We keep Nerv-Worth in the home all the time now and wouldn't be without it," said E. R. Gray, Berkeley Place, Martinsburg, W. Va.

"I am gaining strength and feel more like myself and I think Nerv-Worth is the greatest medicine I ever knew of, and I cheerfully recommend it," said Mrs. H. A. Heck, 418 Holland St., Erie, Pa.

"I am 77 years of age and have been taking Nerv-Worth and I find that after taking it I feel much better, and my wife has certainly derived a great deal of benefit from the use of Nerv-Worth," said John Maynard, 600 St. Calletburg, Ky.

"One bottle of Nerv-Worth did me more good than three trips to Hot Springs," said Policeman Clyde Vitte, of Morgantown, W. Va.

The above letters are unsolicited endorsements telling how Nerv-Worth gives the same satisfying results wherever used. If you suffer from indigestion, stomach trouble, nervous trouble, sleeplessness, gas on the stomach, impurities of the blood, lack of nerve force, or a general rundown condition, you should try Nerv-Worth. Let it start you on the way to health. It is sold on a money-back guarantee, which should convince you that it must do the work, otherwise it would not be sold that way. Your druggist sells Nerv-Worth, or if he does not have it, have him order it for you, or write direct to the Nerv-Worth Co., Zanesville, Ohio, who will tell you where you can get it.

Sold on a money back guarantee by the Connellsville Drug Co. and all leading druggists everywhere.
